J&C Expat Services uses modern marketing strategies to get our message out through various means. Bring your business along for the ride and have your logo displayed as a J&C partner. J&C Expat Services has a large facebook and twitter following alongside our website, with over 15,00 fans.

A New Way To Advertise:

A sponsored article is the best way to get your organisation's message heard. Real stories posted by real expats (not just the J&C writers) means real word of mouth advertising; the best kind possible in a small community.
